Book Fair: Vidya Sangam

The Annual College Book Fair, "Pustak Mela: Vidya Sangam 2025," was organized by the Department of Library on September 25th. The event was held in the college Central Library Corridor and adjacent open-air theater to promote a reading culture among students and faculty, offering access to a wide range of academic and literary resources.

2. Objectives

- To inculcate a love for reading beyond the curriculum.
- To provide students and faculty with access to the latest academic publications and competitive exam books.
- To foster intellectual growth and cultural exchange within the college community.
- To offer books at discounted rates.

3. Event Highlights & Participation

The fair was inaugurated by the Principal on September 25th at 12:00 AM.

Stalls: Renowned publishers and local bookstores participated, setting up stalls in the Corridor

Variety: The collection featured diverse genres, including fiction, non-fiction, academic textbooks, research papers, self-help books, and regional language literature.

Participation: Students from all departments, research scholars, and faculty members attended the event with great enthusiasm.

Special Attractions:

- Poster Making Competition: Held on September 25th to mark reading week, with the theme "Read, Remember, Rebuild".
- Interactive Sessions: Storytelling and book discussions.

Conclusion

"Pustak Mela 2025" was a resounding success, bridging the gap between students and books. The event successfully created a lively atmosphere, encouraging students to explore literature outside their standard curriculum. The administration plans to make this an annual event to continue fostering a strong reading culture.
